The following are the general terms of Agency :—

(1) The Registrar, University of Mysore, as Principal will supply to the sole agent, on credit on the indent of the agent, the publications in such quantities that the total value of stock with the agent shall not exceed at any time Rs. 500. The agent shall undertake to effect sales of the minimum total value of Rs. 350 per year during the period of agency in India outside the limits of the City of Mysore, which will be the agency territory.

(2) The agent shall not sell the publications at prices other than those fixed by the Principal.

(3) The agent shall place on the premises where he carries on the agency business, not only a sign board but also a price list notifying to the public as conspicuously as possible, the price of the books and publications he may be authorised to sell, and the agent shall make proper and sufficient arrangements for the advertisement of the books and publications in the leading newspapers and journals.

(4) The agent will be supplied on credit with the books and publications to the extent of Rs. 500 and until sold and accounted for, they will remain in the hands of the agent as the property of the University. The agent, may however, return to the University such books and publications as remain unsold, at any time before the expiry of one year from the date of issue, provided they are, at the time of return, in good saleable condition. In the event of such returns being accepted, credit shall be given to him for the price thereof. In case they are not returned within the prescribed time, or permission obtained to retain them for a further period, they shall be considered to have been sold to the Agent and no refund will be given on them. The books so returned should not bear the stamp of the Agent or of the firm.

(5) The agent shall not give credit to any person except at his own personal risk.

(6) Books indented for by the Agent shall always be sent by railway free of cost and the University will not be liable to bear the whole or any part of the cost for returning books or the office expenses of the agent which might include the rent of premises, wages of clerks, and servants, the cost of stationery, advertisements and other expenses that may be incurred in the procuring of purchasers.

(7) The agent shall, not later than the 15th day after the close of each quarter, pay all monies received by him in the course of the agency business during that quarter into any Mysore Government Treasury in the State to the credit of the University, after deducting the commission admissable to him. The treasury receipts for such payments shall be forwarded to the Registrar, University of Mysore, Mysore, with a statement of cash and sale accounts for each month of that quarter.

(8) The agent shall keep a true account of all such books and publications as the University shall, from time to time, deliver or consign to him or that may come into his hands for and on account of the same, and he shall every quarter transmit a copy of such accounts to the Registrar, University of Mysore, Mysore. All the books, accounts, and other writing relating to the matter aforesaid shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of the University or any person or persons appointed by the University in this behalf.

(9) The agent shall be free to appoint sub-agents in such places within the agency territory and on such terms as he may decide upon but entirely at his own personal risk, and the appointment of such sub-agencies shall not in any way affect the rights and interests of the Principal.

(10) The Principal reserves to himself the right of making or causing to be made sales of University publications direct from the Oriental Library or the Archæological Office or the University Office to buyers within the limits of the City of Mysore and the buyers from places outside India.

(11) The Principal shall cause the business name and address of the agent to be sufficiently notified in the advertisements, price lists and catalogues published either by the Oriental Library or by the University Office or its publication department.

(12) On all sales made direct by the Principal either from the Oriental Library or Archæological Office or from the University Office within the agency territory, he shall pay the Agent an over-riding commission of 10 per cent.

(13) Either of the parties may give to the other three calendar months' notice, in writing, of his intention to determine the agreement arrived at; and on the expiration of such period, the agreement shall be wholly determined. In case, the Principal is satisfied that the closure of the Agency on the Agent's application in the middle of the year or his inactivity preceding his desire to terminate it, is likely to cause serious inconvenience to the purchasing public, he may levy from the Agent a fine not exceeding Rs. 50.

By Order,
CHARLES PITCHAMUTHU,
Offg. Registrar.
